D., 1844, - at 10 o clock, a. m., and was called to order by the Rev. Beverly Waugh, Bishop of the Methodist Episcopal church; who made a few preliminary remarks, advertng to the importance of the object which had convened the assembly, and to its sacred character, as demanding of all who engaged in it their purest feelings, their wisest thoughts, and their most deliberate action. He then proposed that the Hon. Judge Willard Hall, of Delaware, be invited to the chair, to organize the meeting. This proposition being unanimously agreed to, the Hon. Judge Hall took the chair accordingly. He proceeded to observe, on so doing, that...
