The committee makes this recommendation: that the initiation fee be dropped entirely, and that 50 cents be charged for a certificate of membership, and that the dues remain as they are now. Mr. Tobey takes the chair. On motion of Mr. Ogier, duly seconded, the report of the committee was accepted. Prof. Young: It seems to me that we are trying to do here by recommendation and resolution, that we are trying to explain one of the by-laws or part of the constitution in regard to the annual dues and the initiation fee. Mr. Herbst: This is just the recommendation of this committee. Now, there will have to be final action afterwards. Mr. Herbst submitted the following proposition in writing: Motion to amend Article II, chapter two of by-laws to read as follows: No person shall be considered a member of this association until he has signed the constitution and by-laws and paid the annual contribution for the current year and for his certificate of membership. (Signed, ) F. W. Herbst. On motion of Mr. Hopp, the session adjourned for three minutes, to enable the meeting to act upon the proposed amendment. FOURTH SESSION. Meeting called to order by the President. Reading of minutes dispensed with. On motion, it was decided to take up the report of the committee on nominations for consideration at this time. The report was again read. A motion was made and seconded that the report be...
