PREFACE IN the days of the first grandfather, when the earth was young, the Indian, armed only with stone knife, stone hatchet, and bows and arrows, found himself confronted with the work of Some One far greater and stronger than himself. This Power, or Powers, for there came to be many of them, had uplifted snowy mountain peaks, had cut deep canons through the solid rock, had carved out mountain passes, and had blocked the passage of mighty rivers by great rocks and boulders. These Powers were strong and brutal. They had enormous strength and men of only human size were their prey, as helpless as flybug under the heel of the Indian. Tatoosh, the Thunder Bird who lived in. the sky, was one of these Powers. He shook the mountains with the flapping of his wings. The flashing of his eye was...
