Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .I wrote these poems when someone said to me Doreen, just be content it is not yet time for you to prosper. Another person said to me my Pastor said an elephant is pregnant for 18 months. So don t rush to want to prosper. I told the person, I m not an elephant but a human being. I did not have any source of income, begging for accommodation, food and clothing. I no longer had the luxury of buying myself clothes but wore second hand clothes some were too small or too big. I was told remember beggars are not choosers. These poems are not only of my personal life but of other people I met who were facing different challenges. Like it is 35 hot and the person stays in a shack, there is no electricity, no fridge to get cold water or ice. He walks over 5km to work. He works nine hours a day with a fifteen minute break, monitored when he goes to the toilet. The factory is not a safe area to work in, no fire extinguishers, only one entrance, no air conditioners and he is told to work harder earning R50 a day. Sick leave is unpaid and there is no annual leave, the boss is a rich man who cares about himself and no one else. So pompous he does not even reverence God of heaven who created him. Such a person does not want to hear, pray, fast, have night vigil and have faith in God. An unwise person utter such words is staying in a mansion, air-conditioned, have a successful business and drive a car...
