On the 2nd of November Mr. Bright attended a meeting of the Working Men of Dublin, in the Theatre of the Mechanics Institution, James Haughton, Esq. , in the Chair. An address of welcome to Mr. Bright was presented to him, amid loud and general cheering. The address expressed the thanks of the working men of Ireland to Mr. Bright, and stated that the Irish people had no hope of relief from an English House of Commons as at present constituted, Mr. Bright, in acknowledging the address, said: --When I came to your city I was asked if I would attend a public meeting on the question of Parliamentary Reform. I answered that I was not in good order for much speaking, for I have suffered, as I am afraid you will find before I come to the end of my speech, from much cold and hoarseness, but it was urged upon me that there were at least some, and not an inconsiderable number, of the working men of this city who would be glad if I would meet them; and it was proposed to offer to me some address of friendship and confidence such as that which has been read. I have no complaint to make of it, but this, that whilst I do not say it indicates too much kindness, yet that it colours too highly the small services which I have been able to render to any portion of my countrymen. Your...
