Mechisses, Mechisses, thy mad river hisses, And dashes, and splashes, the same as of old; As down through the valley its springs make a sally To join the wild waves by the Ocean uprolled. It tumbles and rumbles; it groans and it grumbles; It moans as it stumbles o'er stones in its path; O'er boulders and pebbles it doubles its troubles; It boils and it bubbles, and roars in its wrath. Through forest and meadow, in sunshine and shadow, It gleams and it glooms by day and by night; Past hillside and mountain, past millside and fountain, It glides and it slides, never staying its flight. Under green-tufted ridges, past by-ways and bridges, And edges of ledges, and glistening sands; Through town and through village, through pasture and tillage, It winds as it finds its lone way through the lands, Till the tide-waters leap, as from Ocean they sweep To welcome its ripples and mingle their foam; Now merrily married, far...
