Suggestions for Instruction in Language in the Elementary Schools (Classic Reprint) (Paperback)

By Edward Brooks

Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Suggestions for Instruction in Language in the Elementary Schools Education consists in developing the powers of man and furnishing his mind with knowledge. The act of developing the powers of the child has been called Culture, the act of furnishing his mind with knowledge is called Instruction, The primary object of education is therefore two fold, development and knowledge; and the fundamental aim of the teacher is to give culture and instruction to her pupils. To understand the work of education fully the relation of Culture and Instruction should be clearly seen. The object of Culture is to quicken, strengthen, and enrich the mind; the object of instruction is to furnish the mind with knowledge. Culture aims to give a person mental power and skill; Instruction aims to give him information or learning. Each of these processes, of course, implies the other; for in giving culture we make use of knowledge, and in imparting instruction there is usually some growth of the mental powers. The two processes are, however, not identical; and the laws and...
