This year, owing to my retirement on March 1st, it is practically impossible to complete the report by that time. I have up to this date prepared the official part of the report with some other matter, including reprints from the monthly bulletins, and have left the work to be finished by my assistant, Hon. W. L. Nelson, who has very kindly consented to finish the copy and read the proof. In retiring from the office I wish to acknowledge the loyalty and valuable support I have received from the members of the Board, from Assistant Secretary Nelson, State Highway...
